

Undergraduate Advising, Fall 2017, UCSB Computer Science

Phill Conrad

Dr. Phill Conrad is a teaching-track faculty (LSOE) in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Conrad joined the Department in January 2008, and in July 2012 was promoted to Lecturer (SOE), a career-oriented position focusing on undergraduate education. Dr. Conrad has a 50% appointment in UCSB's College of Creative Studies, whose mission is promoting research and creative activity as part of an undergraduate degree program in one of eight majors (including CS)

Yufei Ding

Dr. Yufei Ding has recently accepted a tenure-track faculty position in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Ding received her Ph.D. from North Carolina State University in 2017. She will be joining the CS department as an assistant Professor in Winter 2018. Her research resides at the intersection of Compiler Technology and (Big) Data Analytics, with a focus on enabling High-Level Program Optimizations for data analytics and other data-intensive applications

Chandra Krintz

Dr. Chandra Krintz is a Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Krintz joined the Department in 2001. Her PhD is from the University of California, San Diego. Her research interests include: automatic and adaptive compiler, programming language, virtual runtime, and operating system techniques that improve performance and battery life, as well as programming language and runtime support for cloud computing

Office: HFH 2153
Email: ckrintz at cs.ucsb.edu

Huijia (Rachel) Lin

Dr. Rachel Lin is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Lin joined the Department in 2013. Her PhD is from Cornell University. Her research interests include Cryptography and its interplay with security and theoretical computer science.

Office: HFH 1153
Email: rachel.lin at cs.ucsb.edu

Diba Mirza

Dr. Diba Mirza is a teaching-track faculty (LPSOE) in the Department of Computer Science. She joined the department in 2017 and is currently the faculty advisor for the 2017 class of undergraduate students. She received her PhD in Computer Engineering from the University of California, San Diego. Prior to joining UCSB she was an assistant adjunct Professor at UC San Diego.

Office: HFH 1155
Email: dimirza at cs.ucsb.edu

Jianwen Su

Dr. Jianwen Su is a Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Su joined the Department in 1990. His PhD is from USC. His research interests include: Database systems, theory, and applications.

Office: HFH 2161
Email: su at cs.ucsb.edu

Subhash Suri

Dr. Subhash Suri is a Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Suri joined the Department in 2000. His PhD is from Johns Hopkins University. His research interests include: algorithms, networked sensing, data streams, computational geometry, and game theory.

Office: HFH 2111
Email: suri at cs.ucsb.edu

Stefano Tessaro

Dr. Stefano Tessaro is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Tessaro joined the Department in 2013. His PhD is from ETH Zurich in Switzerland. His research interests include a variety of theoretical and applied topics in cryptography as well as information theory, computational complexity, and computer security.

Office: HFH 1117
Email: tessaro at cs.ucsb.edu

Matthew Turk

Dr. Matthew Turk is a Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Turk joined the Department in 2000. His PhD is from the MIT Media Lab. His research interests include: Computer vision, human computer interaction, perceptual computing, and artificial intelligence.

Office: HFH 2163
Email: mturk at cs.ucsb.edu

Richert Wang

Dr. Richert Wang is a teaching track faculty (LPSOE) in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Wang joined the Department in Fall 2017. Dr. Wang received his Ph.D. in Information and Computer Science at UC Irvine in 2011 and was a lecturer of computer science at UCI before joining UCSB.

Office: HFH 1151
Email: richert at cs.ucsb.edu

William Wang

Dr. William Wang is an Assistant Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Wang joined the Department in 2016. His PhD is from Carnegie Mellon University. His research interests include Natural Language Processing, Machine Learning and Deep Learning, and Artificial Intelligence.

Office: HFH 1115
Email: william at cs.ucsb.edu

Yuan-Fang Wang

Dr. Yuan-Fang Wang is a Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Wang joined the Department in 1987. His PhD is from the University of Texas at Austin. His research interests include 3D computer vision, especially in developing robust, efficient and easy-to-use CV algorithms and systems, with a research objective to benefit the society at large.

Xifeng Yan

Dr. Xifeng Yan is an Associate Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Yan joined the Department in 2008. His PhD is from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. His research interests include: data mining, data management, machine learning, and bioinformatics.

Office: HFH 1111
Email: xyan at cs.ucsb.edu

Tao Yang

Dr. Tao Yang is a Professor in the Department of Computer Science. Dr. Yang joined the Department of Computer Science at UCSB in 1993. His research has been in the areas of parallel and distributed systems, web search/mining, and high performance computing with over 100 refereed papers and patents. His recent research is in the fields of web data mining and search, and cloud systems.
